8:30 pm - Reginald Denny

WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES (US 1926; 72')

by William A. Seiter, with Reginald Denny

Score composed and conducted by Juri Dal Dan and performed live by Zerorchestra

What Happened to Jones was hailed as a "Laugh-Riot" on release, with some claiming it was one of the funniest pictures ever seen on Broadway. Los Angeles Times columnist Grace Kingsley enthused, "The greatest comedy success of the current season is Reginald Denny in What Happened to Jones. Guffaws, not giggles, accompany its showing this week... If you don't laugh until you cry...you will be different from the gang including myself which yesterday simply howled with laughter all through the comedy's unrolling. If other comedians don't watch out, Denny is going to tear the laurels from all their brows. His comedy gifts are being cultivated. But especially he has a tremendously likable personality. That wide crooked grin of his is a fortune in itself."

10:30 pm - European Slapstick: Valentin's Day
